

EDDIE’S EDITORIAL

Conflict has been around since the beginning of time. The first conflict we find is in Genesis chapter 4 between Cain and Able. Come forward several thousands of years and the conflict still takes place. You have conflicts between nations. Conflicts between political parties and conflicts between neighbors to name a few.

However, the greatest conflict in human history is between God and man. The conflict exists because man sinned in breaking the laws of God. So, how does man repair the relationship between God and himself? It comes through Jesus. If man wants to be right with God, he must go through Jesus. Man must obey the gospel of Jesus Christ and become a part of His body, the church. When this happens, we have a mediator between us and God and that mediator is Jesus. Through Jesus we can approach God. The relationship has been restored. The scars of conflict are no more. Our sins have been forgiven. Our wounds have been healed. We are clothed with Jesus.

What a blessing it is to have Jesus to resolve the conflict that we started. What a blessing to be at peace with God.

Looking forward to seeing you Sunday. Eddie

Landon's Letters

How is your faith? That may seem like a simple question and while it might be simple it can get very deep. I remember a friend of mine telling this story at Maywood Christian Camp during a devotional one day about how when he was a senior in high school someone asked him that very question and it changed his life. So I ask you again how is your faith? Do you have a strong faith and relationship with the Lord or is it a weak one? Would you still be considered an infant in your spiritual walk even though you were in the waters of baptism many years ago, or has the Lord done many things in your life because you let him and you chose to grow closer to him and acknowledge him in all your ways? I hope everyone's faith is strong and you are striving to do the work of the Lord, but if it is not ask yourself why not? I encourage you to make sure that you have a strong faith and let the Lord guide your life!

If you would like to help with the First Responders dinner on the 25th please see me and we can get it lined up! Please be sure to sign up for the food items that need to be brought as well!
